POLICY DESCRIPTION:

WELS reimburses congregations, schools, and organizations whose personnel need to be away from their vocations while serving the synod voluntarily for a specified term. Reimbursements will not be made to an individual. Reimbursements will only be made when the voluntary service occurs during a regularly scheduled work day. Reimbursements will only be made if requested by the congregation, school, or organization. Partial days will be reimbursed in proportion to a full day. Reimbursement rates are as follows and will be reviewed annually.
